

Rule 8005-1. Motions for Stay. Motions for stay which request relief from the District Court must be filed directly with the District Court in accordance with District Court Local Rule 87.4(C). If a stay has been granted by the district court it shall be incumbent upon the movant to immediately file a copy of the district court ruling with the clerk of the bankruptcy court.

[Comment: See Local Rule 7069-1(F). (Writs shall issue absent entry of an order granting stay of execution).]